Geography

In your groups, pick out the 13 colonies from the following story.

Georgette the Jersey Cow and the 13 Colonies

Georgette the Jersey Cow loves to ware a pink and sparkly tutu to school. Tonight she is having dinner with her friends and study group; Penny the Rhinoceros, Mary the Macaw, and Silas the Yorkshire terrier. Penny is preparing a very sweet new Virginia ham with fried green beans. Mary is bringing rocky road ice cream for dessert. After dinner, they will complete their homework, connect-the-dots map for social studies and the science assignment is to record the mass of thirteen objects using the triple beam balance. After dinner and completing their homework, they will take a bike ride and sing Christmas Carols to the neighborhood.

Group work expectations

You will be working in groups for the next assignment.

1. Stay on task and work quickly - you only have 15 minutes
2. Use your inside voices
3. be kind and cooperative
4. everyone will contribute and take notes
5. be ready to share your work with the class

Failure to follow these expectations results in a 0 on the assignment. If you are repeatedly asked to stay on task you will be given a step.

Group work

In groups of 3 review your 13 Colonies research chart. (if you do not have access to yours, do not stress, we have books!)

Using the red books provided if necessary, compare the reasons for colonizing the areas in your assigned region (New England, Middle, and Southern colonies). Each person should take notes and answer the following questions:

1. Is there a common theme for colonizing?
2. What are the similarities between colonies in that area?
3. Are there differences?

You have 15 minutes. Each group will present their findings to the class.
